

2010-11 Children First Family Literacy GED Class Schedule (Fall Semester)

Monday, August 23	Class begins
Monday, September 6	No class, Labor Day
Monday, December 20	Last day of fall semester

Class: Mon./Tues./Wed. evenings 5 - 7:30 p.m.

Registration/Orientation:

Students may call Kelly at Literacy Green Bay at 435-2474 x108 to request an application. Once the application is received, students will be notified when space is available to begin classes. At that time, they will be required to attend an orientation session at Literacy Green Bay prior to being formally enrolled in classes.

Eligibility: Students will be required to take a TABE test at Literacy Green Bay to determine eligibility for enrollment in the program. Based on these results, students may be admitted into our program (when space becomes available) or directed to NWTC for additional study or to begin the GED testing process.

Cost: $20 registration fee (one time only fee, as long as the student remains active)
Fee is due at time of registration

Childcare: Early Childhood Education is provided for children of students only who are 8 years of age or younger. Childcare space is limited at times.

Call Kelly Severson at 435-2474 x108 with questions.
