

When I came to the Literacy Green Bay I was nervous, but as time passed I am more comfortable. All the staff are kind and helpful. I like to write compositions especially on the bulletin board and read the others. I am showing mine to Salvador. When we discuss books and have conversation it is very interesting because I like to communicate and share with others. I like my tutors and I get to know other people. I am happy.

Written by Martha Osioro, Sister Jeanne's previous student